

Three Plays For A Quarter
@Jack Shannon/Rick Lang

V1

Sat there in the corner of Rosas Cafe
Spinning those old 45's, songs of yesterday
The sound of a coin going down the slot
Punch a letter and a number, this is what you got

Chorus

Three plays for a quarter, one play for a dime
All those vinyl memories that took us back in time
It was Wake Up Little Suzie and Georgia On My Mind
Three plays for a quarter, one play for a dime

V2

Berger and a soda with a side of fries
Neon lights a flashin', along with Becky's eyes
First time I held her was when that song began
The magic I felt that night I prayed would never end

V3

Me and Becky married back in 1964
That little Cafe where Mae met, it ain't there any more
Rosa gave us that jukebox, play it all the time (it still works just fine)
Three plays for a quarter, one play for a dime
