

Tripped, Stumbled & Fell

@R. Lang/D. Kenney

CHORUS

Tripped, stumbled and fell in love with you
Caught me off balance, there was nothing I could do
I'd just about given up on love, next thing that I knew
I tripped, stumbled and fell in love with you

Outside my window I see couples on the go
Happy and in love as can be
Just can't help but wonder when Cupid draws his bow
Why every arrow flies right past me

Wearing' out the soles of my shoes on sidewalk
Trying to make some sense of it all
Went & caught my heel as I stepped down on the crosswalk
You reached out your hand... I looked up and then

CHORUS

My poor old heart kept beatin' faster and faster
I felt shivers up and down my spine
The arrow found it's mark, and in that near disaster
Cupid took his time, now I'm yours and you are mine.
