

Triumphant

Lyrics by Elizabeth Miller

Copyright © 2022 Elizabeth Miller

Verse 1

Walking down this dusty road I used to call my life
All I knew was pain and heartache—I lived each day in strife
Till the verses I read every day came alive and I saw my hope
I cried to the Lord, and He heard my voice—no longer with my sins I cope

Chorus

Now I'm triumphant over failure
Triumphant over shame
Triumphant over all the years I worked only in vain
Triumphant over Satan
Triumphant over loss
And all I have to thank is Jesus's blood and an empty cross
My life now has purpose—and I'm looking to Heaven's home
I thank God no longer in chains do I roam
Jesus paid the price--so I will sing
I am triumphant

Verse 2

Working for this righteous King all day and all night
I wonder is it really worth it—or am I just wasting my life?
'Though I can't see anything I've done—one day
I'll stand before my heavenly King, and He'll say

Chorus 2

You were triumphant over failure

Triumphant over shame

Triumphant over all the years you worked only in vain

Triumphant over Satan

Triumphant over loss

And all you had to thank is my Son's blood and an empty cross

Your life then had purpose—and you were looking to Heaven's home

You thanked me—no longer in chains did you roam

You sang my name

You were triumphant

