

We Know Who Wins The War
@Natalie Cromwell/Rick Lang

V1

Every days a battle, they're different yet the same
But we've all felt the shackles and we've all worn the chains

Pre-Chorus

So do not be discouraged if your weak and left exposed
Your faith will give you courage, you won't face the fight alone

Chorus

So take up your weapon, stand firm and hold your ground
Rally up the Saints and let's all gather 'round
The enemy is pressing in, get ready for the fight
There is nothin' we can't do with Gods power, strength and might
If you think you e lost the battle and can't take it anymore
Don't give up and don't give in - we know who wins the war

V2

The shield of faith protects you, Gods Word is your defense
Arm yourself with arrows of truth and righteousness

Pre-Chorus

Satans evil forces are waiting 'round the bend
Don't be thrown off course, stick to the Masters plan

Chorus

Bridge

Evil verses goodness
Right verses wrong
The victory is Jesus
We knew it all along
