

Rainy Day Love
@Josh Shilling/Rick Lang

V1

It's been so long now but I remember
We were young and free on fire that winter
You were off to school, I was heading to work in the fall
But never stopped writing letters, yeah I saved them all

V2

Turned the page on yesterday and on our hearts
Let life have its way with pulling us apart
One love after another, they always let you down
Just like a tumbleweed you blow back into town

Chorus

Rainy day love, rainy day love
You only come around when there's dark clouds above
Rainy day love, it's never enough
I'll pray the storms roll in, it pours til it floods
Hope it never ends, my rainy day love

V3

In the depths of my dreams I see a different end
To the story we still write every now and then
You don't ride off in the sunset with some other fella
It rains forevermore, I'm your umbrella

Bridge

But until then, when I see the colors of the rainbow
I always know you're bound to go
