

Young Jenny Wade
@Michelle Murray/Rick Lang

Chorus

Victim of the war between the states
Lost her life when that bullet strayed
Never did deserve such a fate
Put her in an early grave
Young Jenny Wade

V1

Jenny was a seamstress, just twenty years old
So courageous and brave
Baking fresh bread, to keep the soldiers well fed
In the fight between the blue and the gray
On that fateful day

V2

Jenny was engaged to marry that May
To a man who wore the Union Blue
But that bloody fight took both their lives
Never got to see it through

V3

The house where she died, family at her side
Remains on Cemetery Hill
When the night shadows fall, her ghost haunts those halls
Longing for her lover still
