

“String Of Broken Promises”

By: Windi Robinson

(Verse #1)

I unpack worn out boxes, of old memories
A torn tattered picture, of you and me
A baseball cap you won for me, at the county fair
A matchbook with the number, of your first affair

(Verse #2)

A dozen broken records, our favorites at the time
A dusty diamond wedding ring, that's lost its shine
A string of pearls you gave to me, on our anniversary
Lines the bottom of this box of old memories

(Chorus)

And a string of broken promises,
Like scattered pearls upon the floor
What had bound them all together
Is a love you feel no more
You gave them to me long ago
When your love was warm and true
Now a string of broken promises
Is all I have left of you

(Verse #3)

I pack up worn out boxes, of old memories
I've got a new life now, and so it seems
The time has come, to let you go and throw them all away
All that's left behind, are memories in my mind
As I say goodbye today

(Chorus #2)

With a string of broken promises
Like scattered pearls upon the floor
What had bound them all together
Is a love you feel no more
You gave them to me long ago
When your love was warm and true
Now a string of broken promises
Is all I have left of you
