

No You -----

My friends and family ask if there is anything they can do
I don't know how to tell them and I'm sure I can't explain
because there is no you,
No you..... No you....
Like a midnight without a moon
No you..

Why you left, and will you ever return
It's a mystery without a clue
Because there is no you
No You,,,,,,No you.....
Like a midnight without a moon
No you
You made my life worth living and feel new
With gestures and phrases not everyone knew
Now there is no you.
No you.....
Like a midnight without a moon
No you... No you..No you
